Looking at many areas of life such as health, recreation, personal growth, family and friends, physical environment, and professional satisfaction, briefly describe how the department's philosophy has helped foster work-life balance.

What are the two most instrumental initiatives, programs, or approaches your department offers for lawyers to help achieve work-life balance?

How has the legal department benefited from the company's work-life balance initiatives?

What advice should be shared with other companies/departments striving to create an environment more conducive to work-life balance?

Please indicate on a separate sheet of paper any additional information, thoughts, or comments on these issues and attach it to this application. A company profile may also be attached.
